

As one of your constituents, localized news is of particular interest to me. Without it where would I or anyone else in my community turn to when we needed to be informed of the goings on close to home. Please do everything in your power to halt any further deregulation. Radio, television, print media and the government need to represent the public interests not corporate ones.